

Alleluia, Alleluia He is Risen!

What wonderful words to hear today. We have just spent the past forty days in sacrifice and penance. Now we can jump for joy and celebrate the wonderous happenings of the past few days.

The Triduum is the holiest time of our church year when we meditate on the Pascal Mystery – the death and resurrection of our Lord.

Today I wish you joyous celebrations with your family and friends!

Happy Easter!

Betsy F.